TRIED

To Call Down Clerk Isbell,

But Councilman Foster Was Himself Called Down.

Councilman Foster tried to call Clerk Isbell down Monday night, but was called down himself by President Koons.

"Where is that resolution I offered here some time ago?" he asked.

"I'm sure I don't know," replied the Clerk.

"Well, why don't you?"

"Simply because it was never given to me."

"But didn't you hear me read it?"

"Yes."

"Well then you should have taken it down."

"I can't write as fast as you talk."

"Well, you should have looked after it."

"What did you do with the resolution?" interrupted President Koons, addressing Mr. Foster.

"I gave it to a newspaper man."

"Well, hereafter when you have any resolutions you want looked after give them to the Clerk instead of newspaper men," directed President Koons.

The resolution to which Mr. Foster referred related to shaving down expenses in conducting the affairs of the city.

Make Money in Wall Street.

Never before have the opportunities been offered western speculators to trade in Wall street with the same facilities as though they were in New York, as now, owing to the private wire service which enabled speculators to trade in Chicago with exactly the same facilities for getting information and quick execution of orders as though you were in a New York office, thereby making money. We issue a daily forecast, which if followed, you cannot help but make money in the bull market, which has just started. Write for the names of the stocks which are paying dividends and which should be bought at once for a ten point rise, also our special letter, telling how to make money in Wall st., which will be sent free upon request.

WIFE'S GIFT.

It Was a Check Which the Bank Refused.

Westbrook, Me., Jan. 7.—After an absence of many years, William W. Damon recently returned to Westbrook. He is a member of a West Virginia company with a thriving business. Among those Damon met was Miss Bertha W. Knight, and Christmas evening cards were received announcing their marriage. Almost immediately the groom took his departure, and since that time he has not been seen. New Year's day, while in Boston, Damon presented his wife with a check for $100 drawn on a Pittsburgh bank as a holiday gift. Bank officials communicated by telegraph with the Pittsburgh institution on which the check was drawn, and learned that Damon was still known there. Mrs. Damon still maintains a firm belief in her husband's honesty of purpose.
